

INVITATION

Invitation to participate in the GUR summer school project of the International Physicians for the Prevention of Nuclear War (IPPNW) in Batumi in July 2010.

Dear students and young doctors,

The GUR Summer School is a project organized by an international platform of students and young doctors who belong to the “International Physicians for the Prevention of Nuclear Weapons” organization (IPPNW). The IPPNW has been participating in the campaigning for a world free of nuclear weapons, to end arms race and for diversion of funds to health and education. IPPNW was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in the year 1985. It was earlier awarded UNESCO prize for peace in 1984.

The GUR Summer School aims to create a forum for medical students and young physicians from Russia, Georgia, Ukraine, Azerbaijan and from European countries to discuss the problem of Nuclear Weapons existence, peace in the region and protection of the countries` independence. Further, we aim to raise awareness about health problems in the region and learn practical solutions to face them. About 30 delegates including young doctors and medical students from the above mentioned countries are expected to participate in the summer school.

The GUR Summer School will be held in Batumi, Georgia between the 26th of July and 1st of August, 2010.

The conference fee is 100 Euro which includes accommodation, meals, transportation and participation in various events.

Flights and visa must be paid by the participants.

We hereby invite you to participate in the summer school and related events as mentioned above.

Yours truly,

Dr. Tamar Shashikadze
